MEMORANDUM

TO : All RDs, PROs; D, CIDG; D, CL & D, IG

FROM : TADIDM/TF USIG Commander

SUBJECT : Reiteration of the SOP in the Creation and Activation of Special Investigation Task Group to Handle Heinous and Sensational Crimes

DATE : NOV 03 2011

1. References:

- LOI TF USIG;
- SOP No. 02/11 in the Creation and Activation of Special Investigation Task Group to Handle Heinous and Sensational Crimes; and
- Memo from TADIDM dated May 9, 2011 with subject: Policy on the Assignment of TF USIG Investigators.

2. This pertains to the procedures in the activation of Special Investigation Task Group (SITG) in your respective command to handle investigation of heinous and sensational crimes. It has been observed by this Directorate that the mechanism designed to monitor and supervise the investigation of heinous and sensational cases are affected when a commander or member/s of the SITG is relieved or reassigned.

3. In view thereof, please be reminded that in accordance with SOP Number 02/11 in the Creation and Activation of SITG to Handle Heinous and Sensational Crimes particularly in para 6 (c) (4), which reads as: where the designated Commander or members of the SITG cannot effectively comply with the operational requirements, and/or has perceived biases of any kind, the RD shall immediately reorganize the said SITG and designate other officers who are more capable to accomplish the job. Hence, in the event that the Commander or any members of the SITG shall be reassigned or relieved from their present assignment, the SITG must be immediately reorganized.

4. In addition, under para 6 (e) on the above mentioned SOP, the SITG shall be deactivated upon the solution of the particular case being investigated by the SITG. Solution of the case shall mean the filing of the appropriate case in court and arrest of the perpetrator/s.

5. For guidance and strict compliance.

SAMUEL B DICIANO
Police Chief Superintendent
